

Elsa (Peru) sells clothing and shoes, to support her two children. Elsa dreams of having her own store in a fixed location, owning her own home, and providing her children with a good education.

Rosa (Tarma, Peru)

Rosa is a farmer and has grown citrus fruit for more than 30 years. She is divorced, and supports her four children. The income from her business allows her to support her family. She is passionate about farming, and her favorite part of her job is climbing trees for the harvest. The most difficult part of her job is keeping her trees healthy, and through the microfinance loan by GPC's Mission Committee, Rosa will be able to afford the appropriate fertilizers and other agricultural materials that she needs.

Maritza (Bolivia) knits sweaters, which she sells to raise money to support her family. She is a single mother of a 10-year old boy, and she also supports her elderly parents

For more information see www.kiva.org.